

Basic Detail Report

Title Man's Baseball Cap

Date about 1990s

Description Navy blue baseball cap with a patch and embroidered letters and numbers on the front panel. The patch is a yellow crest with white trim. In the center of the crest, a man in Colonial dress is running, while holding white scroll in his left hand. Above the crest, in blue writing, is "FLYING YANKEES," and below the crest is "103D FIGHTER WING". To the left of this patch, running vertically down the front of the cap, is the number "103" embroidered in gold thread. To the right of the patch, also running vertically down the front of the cap and embroidered in gold thread, are the letters, "F W". The back of the cap has a navy blue plastic, adjustable snap closure.

Basic Detail Report