Basic Detail Report

Title The Hare Bell.

Date 1850

Primary Maker Kellogg & Comstock

Medium Lithography; printer's ink, watercolor, and Chinese white on wove paper

Basic Detail Report

Description A young woman stands in a grassy clearing beside a bank on which flowering plants are growing. She is wearing a dress with a fitted bodice, a v-shaped waistline, and buttons all the way down the front. The high neckline and long sleeves are trimmed with lace. She wears bracelets on both wrists. With her right hand, she plucks a stalk of harebells. She holds another stalk in her left hand. Trees are in the background.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 14 1/16 x 8 9/16in. (35.7 x 21.7cm) Sheet (height x width): 14 1/16 x 10in. (35.7 x 25.4cm)