

Basic Detail Report

Title News from Lexington, Putnam Leaving the Plow.

Date 1886-1887

Primary Maker Kellogg & Bulkeley

Medium Chromolithography; color printer's inks on coated wove paper

Description A young man on horseback has just arrived from the right. He wears a coat and boots and has a drum slung over his shoulder. On the left, a middle-aged man holds the reins of two draft horses who are harnessed to a plow. He wears a vest, shirt, breeches, and boots. Three young men or boys are running down a hill in the left background. All three carry muskets. One carries a powder horn. A house is on the hill behind them. Three large trees are in the right background. Additional trees line the field in the distance.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 16 1/16 x 23in. (40.8 x 58.4cm) Sheet (height x width): 20 1/8 x 26 1/16in. (51.1 x 66.2cm)