

Basic Detail Report

Title Plate or Tray

Date about 1970

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Mechanically-molded earthenware with underglaze green decoration

Description Round, earthenware plate or tray with printed, underglaze green decoration commemorating the state of Connecticut. The central design on the plate is an image titled, "STATE CAPITOL HARTFORD", which shows a multi-story building with an irregular roof line and a central round tower. The center of the plate bears the title, "CONNECTICUT" above and, "THE NUTMEG STATE" below. Surrounding this are five oval borders, each containing a separate design and

Basic Detail Report

title. The first shows a four-lane highway and is titled, "CONNECTICUT TURNPIKE". The second design shows a Gothic-style tower, and is titled, "HARKNESS TOWER". The third design shows a ship or submarine in the water, titled, "NEW LONDON". The fourth design shows a bridge crossing a river, titled, "CHARTER OAK BRIDGE". The final design shows a ship with three-masts titled, "OLD WHALING SHIP". Between each design is a small flower and leaves, probably the mountain laurel. There is a scalloped line at the outer edge of the rim.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (diameter): 9 1/8in. (23.2cm)