

Basic Detail Report

Title Sleepy Hollow Cabins, Branford, Conn.

Date before 1954

Primary Maker Peteer D. Chapdelaine Specialty Advertising

Medium Photomechanical prints; black and colored printers' inks on postcard

Description Twenty-four small, white cabins or cottages are arranged in rows on grassy lawns with paved driveways between them. Two larger buildings, possibly the owner's house or office and a service building, are at the left. Some of the driveways appears to be bordered with white stones. Small flower gardens are near some of the units. A sign is beside the road in the foreground. Trees and bushes, some with autumn foliage, are in the background.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 3 1/8 x 5 7/16in. (7.9 x 13.8cm) Sheet (height x width): 3 3/8 x 5 7/16in. (8.6 x 13.8cm)