Basic Detail Report

Title Figured Flask

Date 1847-1870

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Mold-blown aquamarine glass

Basic Detail Report

Description Large, figured flask made of mold-blown aquamarine glass. The flask has an inverted conical collar at the rim, a cylindrical neck, rounded shoulders and sides, a flattened body, and a flat bottom. On either side of the flask, there is a round raised panel with a raised bust and raised lettering. Both busts are a man in profile facing left. On one side, the man has a strong profile and wears a wig tied at the back. Above this are the raised words, "FATHER OF HIS COUNTRY". On the opposite side, the man has short hair and is wearing a military uniform with epaulets at the shoulder. Above this, inside the panel, are the raised words, "GEN. Z TAYLOR". The bottom of the figured flask has some light scratches and wear. The highest points of the raised decoration on both sides have some wear as well.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width x depth): 8 1/2 x 5 1/2 x 2 1/2in. (21.6 x 14 x 6.4cm)