Title Porringer

Date 1976

Primary Maker Woodbury Pewterers

Medium Cast pewter

Description Cast pewter porringer with a basin-shaped body with straight tapered sides. The porringer has a bead at the rim and a flat bottom. At one side is a disc-shaped handle with an impressed emblem on the top. The emblem consists of an eagle with outstretched wings and a pen in its mouth, over a scroll of paper. A banner superimposed over the eagle has the dates "1776" and "1976". The eagle is surrounded by a circular border containing the words, "USA BICENTENNIAL". This is further surrounded by a circular border containing the words, "DAUGHTERS OF THE" above and "AMERICAN REVOLUTION" below. At the lower edge of the handle is impressed "CONNECTICUT". The handle is soldered onto the side of the porringer at the rim. The underside of the porringer has multiple scratches.
