Basic Detail Report

Title John J. McMahon and His Colleagues in New York City

Date about 1899

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; gelatin silver prints on paper, mounted on paper, bound in photograph album

Description Photograph album; subjects include informal portraits of John J. McMahon and J.J. Crane, the New York office of Frederick Royal Comstock, Architect, various New York landmarks and sites, churches, dogs, parks, houses, women, children, and men in military uniform. McMahon and Crane are shown exercising with bowling pins and in the interior of an office and apartment. A young boy in knickers is holding a hockey stick.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (album height x width): 7 1/4 x 10 7/16in. (18.4 x 26.5cm)