Title Daniel Norton and His Revolutionary War Flag

Date 1947

Primary Maker HH Art Studios Inc.

Medium Drawing; ink and gouache with graphite on white wove paper mounted to board

Description Drawing representing revolutionary soldier Daniel Norton, and his mother Rebecca Norton, with an American flag that she made for him. The woman is wearing a hat and is seated with an American flag in her lap. The man is standing next to her wearing a military uniform and tri-corner hat, with a powder horn slung over his shoulder and carrying a rifle. There is a spinning wheel in the room, and a lantern hanging on the wall by a window. A fireplace with a cooking pot is in the background. A girl is standing in a doorway leading outside, and pointing. Another building and a fence are visible in the distance outside.
