

Basic Detail Report

Title House for Mr. Richard Wayne, 255 Kenyon Street, Hartford

Date 1914

Primary Maker William T. Marchant

Medium Architectural Drawings, pencil, black and red ink on trace and linen paper.

Description Plans for a three-story Colonial Revival house, with attached garage.

The house features a gambrel roof, with decorative cornice detailing, dormer windows on the attic level and a pedimented entry portico supported by doric columns. The windows are primarily double-hung louvred sash windows in the six-over-six configuration, with large tri-part windows featured on the front and rear elevations. Drawings included in the set are: Front, Rear, South, and North Elevations, as well as, Cellar, First Floor, Second Floor, and Attic Plans. The cellar plans include: a toilet, and heater coal, range coal, and laundry rooms. The first floor plans include: dining room, entry hall and portico, a large living room, veranda, kitchen, butler's pantry, pantry, rear porch, garage and garage entryway. The second floor plans include: a sewing room, four chambers with attached shared baths (two total,) and a linen closet. The attic plans include: three maids' rooms, hall, bath, and a large play room.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: 15 x 21 1/2in. (38.1 x 54.6cm)