

Basic Detail Report

Title Cartes pour servir a l'Histoire de la Nouvelle-France ou du Canada

Date 1851

Primary Maker Louis Dussieux

Medium Engraving; black printer's ink on wove paper

Description Map of Canada and the United States, from Hudson's Bay to the north, the Atlantic Ocean to the east, the Carolinas to the south, and the Great Lakes to the west, primarily chronicling the French and Indian War. Three inset maps depict French forts on Hudson's Bay, Montreal, and the area around Quebec. The Quebec inset details various battles and military maneuvers in 1759, as explained by the legend.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 7 1/2 x 11 3/8in. (19.1 x 28.9cm) Sheet (height x width): 8 5/8 x 12 5/8in. (21.9 x 32.1cm)