Basic Detail Report

Description The town of New Haven, Connecticut, with depictions of houses accompanied by the names and professions of their owners or occupants in 1748. The map is oriented with the north arrow pointing toward the top right corner, and it extends from York Street at the top, Grove Street to the right, Water Street at the bottom and Morocco Street to the west. In the center of the map is the town green, which contains the grammar school, county house, court house, an unnamed building, an unnamed church and a building labeled as the "goal," which may be a misspelling of "gaol." There is also a cemetery, three canons, and "2 Trees Planted in 1686." Yale College appears at the top of the green. On the right side is a list of the first grantees, depicted as written on a scroll; at the top of the scroll is what appears to be a fir tree branch, and at the bottom is an olive branch.
