

Basic Detail Report

Title East Haddam

Date 1874

Primary Maker F. W. Beers & Co.

Medium Lithography; black printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper

Description Map of the town of East Haddam, Connecticut, with the town lines of Chatham and Colchester to the north, Salem to the east, Lyme to the south, and Haddam and the Connecticut River to the west. Haddam is divided into districts, marked with broken solid boundary lines. Roads are shown but not labeled. Buildings are depicted as solid black squares and are labeled with the name of the property owner or occupant. Natural features include elevation, conveyed through hachure marks, the Connecticut River and the Salmon River. To the left is an inset map of Hadlyme, located in the southern portion of East Haddam.

Basic Detail Report

Roads are shown but not labeled. Buildings are depicted as shaded squares and are labeled with the name of the property owner or occupant. A cemetery is colored green.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 14 1/4 x 22 1/2in. (36.2 x 57.2cm) Sheet (height x width): 14 3/4 x 22 5/8in. (37.5 x 57.5cm)