

Basic Detail Report

Title Views of Hartford Buildings

Date 1860-1930

Primary Maker Richard S. DeLamater

Medium Photography; albumen prints on paper on cardboard mounts

Description Interior and exterior views of Hartford buildings, including Trinity College, Hartford Public High School, the Young Men's Christian Association, Saint Francis Hospital, the State Capitol, the Old State House, and the Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb. One photograph shows the interior of the wool house of H. C. Judd & Co. Another shows the interior of the store of Covey & Smith. Views of factories include one of Pratt & Whitney Insurance companies include the Aetna Life Insurance Company, the Two Hartfords, the City Fire Insurance Company, and Travelers Insurance Company. A brick saw-mill may be the saw mill located at Dutch Point. One photographs shows the Mark Twain house, apparently shortly after the house was completed. Part of the John S. Craig Collection.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 4 x 6 7/8in. (10.2 x 17.5

cm) or smaller Sheet (height x width): 4 x 6 7/8in. (10.2 x 17.5cm) or smaller

Mount (height x width): 4 x 6 7/8in. (10.2 x 17.5cm) or smaller