

Basic Detail Report

Title Panoramic Views of Hartford

Date 1870-1939

Primary Maker Daniel S. Camp

Medium Photography; albumen prints on paper on cardboard mounts

Description Views of Hartford, many of them of Main Street, many taken from an elevated viewpoint, include commercial buildings, churches, and parades. Some photographs include bunting, horse-drawn vehicles, including horse-drawn cabs, and an American flag. At least one photograph depicts Battle Flag Day, September 17, 1877. Another depicts an Armistice Day parade on November 11, 1939. Others show the Municipal Building, the view east from Travelers, the view west from Travelers, the view from Colt's Fire Arms Manufactory, and the view from the State Armory. Part of the John S. Craig Collection.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 3 5/8 x 3 1/8in. (9.2 x 7.9

cm) or smaller Sheet (height x width): 3 5/8 x 3 1/8in. (9.2 x 7.9cm) or smaller

Mount (height x width): 4 x 7in. (10.2 x 17.8cm) or smaller