

Basic Detail Report

Title Murals in the Connecticut Room, G. Fox & Co.

Date Probably 1947

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; negative emulsion on acetate

Description Views of murals in the Connecticut Room in the G. Fox and Co. Store.

Subjects include the Congregational Church in Farmington, the Wadsworth Atheneum in Hartford, the First Fox Store on Main Street in Hartford, the Old State House in Hartford, the New Haven Green at Yale University, a view of Hartford as seen from the river, Wesleyan University in Middletown, Mrs. Lydia Huntley Sigourney's Salon, Waterbury, the Charter Oak in the winter, Willimantic, a painting of the Connecticut seal above metal doors, the Charter Oak in the autumn, the Charter Oak in the spring, and the New London Harbor.

Basic Detail Report

All subjects are depicted as taking place in the year 1847, the year G. Fox was founded.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 7 7/8 x 10in. (20 x 25.4cm)