Description Map of a portion of Avon, Connecticut, with farmland to the north, the Farmington River to the east, the road to Unionville to the south, and Pine Woods Pond to the west. The map details the land features, using different lines to denote woods, marshes, orchards, brush, and ponds, with fields appearing as blank spots. Lines representing wire fences separate the various parcels of land. Roads are shown as two parallel lines, and a dry canal bed is also depicted. Most of the land is numbered on the map and labeled in a list in the lower left corner. Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 17 x 12 15/16in.
