Basic Detail Report

Title Judges' Cave Tablet

Primary Maker Robert R. Wiseman

Medium Oil on canvas

Description Painting of tablet on Judges' Cave done in greens and browns. The tablet is rectangular, with half circle at the top in the middle. In this half circle is a seal with word around it: "Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Conn." The main body of the tablet reads as follows: "Judges Cave/ here May fifteenth 1661 and for some weeks/ thereafter Edward Whalley and his son-in-law/ William Goffe member of parliament general/ officers in the army of the commonwealth and/ signers of the death warrant of King Charles/ first found shelter and concealment form the / officers of the crown after the restoration. ‘Opposition to tyrants is obedience to god'/ 1896"

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 17 15/16 x 24 1/8in. (45.6 x 61.3

cm)