

Basic Detail Report

Title Historic Hartford, Connecticut

Date 1991

Primary Maker John Roman

Medium Lithography; colored printer's inks on wove paper

Description Bird's-eye view of Hartford, Connecticut, with Trinity College at the upper left, Bradley International Airport at the upper right, and the East Hartford shore of the Connecticut River in the foreground. Bridges and highways are shown schematically. Buildings and businesses are labeled, sometimes apparently with reproductions of their signs or logos. Historical information appears in speech balloons. A Radio WTIC 1080 Air-One Traffic Plane, a seagull, and a balloon soar over the city. A compass rose indicates that the map is oriented with north to the right.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 23 1/2 x 35 1/2in. (59.7 x 90.2cm) Sheet (height x width): 24 1/8 x 36in. (61.3 x 91.4cm)