Description A very large display of floral arrangements and wreaths is at the front of the interior of a Gothic revival style church. One of the floral arrangements at the front of the church, in the form of the open book, reads "1859-1917". Rows of pews visible on both sides on the center aisle. Hand fans, in the form of cloth paddles, are visible in the hymn book racks at the back of the pews. A pipe organ stands elevated on the front wall of the church. Electric lights hang from the ceiling.
