Description Plan of the Ancient Burying Ground in Hartford, Connecticut. The map is oriented with north to the right; Lewis Street is on the west, Main Street on the east, and Gold Street on the south. The maps shows when different parcels of land were acquired by the city of Hartford and gives the names of the previous owners and the dates of the transactions. The location of the first meeting house, an eighteenth century schoolhouse, and the nineteenth-century Waverly Building are shown. The map also shows the buildings that were torn down in the process of widening Gold Street in the 1890s.
