

Basic Detail Report

Title Plan of the Town of Meriden, New Haven County, Connecticut

Date 1851

Primary Maker E. M. Woodford

Medium Lithography; black printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper mounted on fabric

Description Map of the town of Meriden, Connecticut, with Berlin to the north, Middletown to the east, Wallingford to the south, and Cheshire and Southington to the west. the town is divided into twelve districts. Roads, turnpikes (with turnpike gates), and the New Haven, Hartford, and Springfield Railroad are shown. Names of property owners are indicated. Cemeteries are colored green. Streams and mountains are shown. Elevation is indicated by hachure marks; ridges are outlined. An adjoining map depicts the village of Meriden and part of

Basic Detail Report

West Meriden and provides more detail, including names of local streets, churches, businesses, and additional property owners. Vignettes at top and bottom depict the First Congregational Church, the Center Congregational Church, the Baptist Church, the Methodist Church, St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, the Union Works, Curtiss, Morgan and Company's Lock Manufactory and Iron-Foundry, Curtis L. North's store, Julius Andrews's Hemlock Grove, Curtis L. North's residence and insurance office, and the residences of Jedediah Wilcox, H. W. Curtiss, and Levi Allen.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 35 x 42 1/2in. (88.9 x 108cm) Sheet (height x width): 36 3/4 x 43 1/2in. (93.3 x 110.5cm)