Title New Map of Hartford from the Latest Surveys

Date 1877

Primary Maker Kellogg & Bulkeley

Medium Lithography; black printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper, in cardboard covers

Description Two maps within one set of covers. The main map is a pocket map of Connecticut and the other map, described here, is a pocket map of Hartford, with Bloomfield to the north, East Hartford to the east, Wethersfield to the south, and West Hartford to the west. The city is divided into wards, colored pink, blue or yellow, and each contains a number that represents the location of that ward's voting place. Green is used to depict parks and cemeteries. The Hartford and New Haven; Hartford, Providence and Fishkill; Connecticut Western; and Connecticut Valley Railroad lines run through town. There are concentric circles in one-half mile increments from Union Station.
