Basic Detail Report

Title Horse-drawn Coach in Parade during the Bulkeley Bridge Celebration

Date 1908

Primary Maker Horace Bushnell Cheney Sr.

Medium Photography; gelatin emulsion on glass

Description Men wearing eighteenth-century costume serve as driver and footmen for a coach drawn by four horses, accompanied by outriders. The equipage is part of a parade on a paved street decorated with flags, including an American flag, and pennants.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 4 x 5in. (10.2 x 12.7cm)