Basic Detail Report

Title Group of Men in Kilts Assembled for a Parade

Date 1914

Primary Maker Horace Bushnell Cheney Sr.

Medium Photography; gelatin emulsion on glass

Description Men wearing kilts stand in a street, apparently giving a performance as part of a parade. One of the men, in the foreground, has his hands on his hips. Tents or pavillions, leafy trees, and frame houses line the street.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 3 1/8 x 4 1/8in. (7.9 x 10.5cm)