Basic Detail Report

Title View of People Sledding in Montreal, Canada

Date about 1918

Primary Maker Horace Bushnell Cheney Sr.

Medium Photography; gelatin silver emulsion on plastic

Basic Detail Report

Description View of two sleds on a sledding track. There are three lanes, seperated by rows of ice or snow. There is one person on the sled to the left, lying down, and two people on the sled to the right. There is a large mound of snow to the right of the track. To the right of that is a stone wall and above it, a large building. Behind the people on sleds, the track slopes upwards to a starting point. There are arches over the slide portion of the track, in the background. Also in the bacground, to the right of the track, is a large hill. There are a few buildings on it and a row of utility poles spaced along its slope.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 4 1/8 × 3 1/8in. (10.5 × 7.9cm)

Sheet (height x width): 4 9/16 × 3 3/8in. (11.6 × 8.6cm)