Basic Detail Report

Title Highway Overpasses Converging, Hartford, Connecticut

Date 1976

Primary Maker Richard Welling

Medium Drawing; black and colored inks on paper

Description Drawing of highway overpasses, with two converging ones that fill the bulk of the frame and a "Merge" sign between them. Two lamp posts are visible on the left-most highway. Another overpass ramp is depicted splitting off to the right. There are what appear to be railroad tracks running horizontally in the foreground and a wall in the background.
