

Basic Detail Report

Title Demolition of 125 Trumbull Street

Date 1969

Primary Maker Richard Welling

Medium Drawings; black and colored markers on paper

Description Four drawings on the front and back of a sheet of paper, three of which show the demolition of 125 Trumbull Street in downtown Hartford, Connecticut. One shows the building right before demolition, with figures who appear to be construction workers in front of it, and two show it during demolition, one that shows the east side of the building and one that shows the west side. The fourth drawing depicts First Church in Farmington, Connecticut.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 10 5/8 x 8 1/8in. (27 x 20.6cm) Sheet (height x width): 10 5/8 x 16 3/8in. (27 x 41.6cm)