Basic Detail Report

Title Groton Monument and Fort Griswold.

Date 1834

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; pencil on paper

Description View looking east from New London across the Thames River. The Groton Monument is on the left and Fort Griswold is on the right with a long wall and a couple of small buildings. In between the two there is a road leading down to the river and there are several buildings along its edge

Dimensions Sheet (height x width): 5 1/2 x 8 1/4in. (14 x 21cm)