

Basic Detail Report

Title South view of East Hartford.

Date 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; pencil on paper

Description A long row of large spreading elm trees occupies the center of the street. Additional elms appear in front of the houses on either side of the street.

A small building with a square tower at the right appears to be a church. A notes states "East Hartford Academy / also a high school / a short distance south."

This broad street led across the covered bridge to Hartford
