

Basic Detail Report

Title Leffingwell or Rocky Point in Norwich.

Date 1834

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; pencil on paper

Description View of Rocky Point, at the entrance to Trading Cove on the Thames River. The rocky, wooded point is in the left with the river in the foreground and the cove in the right background. The spires of Norwich are visible in the distance. A note reads "Stephen Maples."

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 7 1/16 x 8 1/4in. (18 x 21cm)