Basic Detail Report

Title Fenwick Monument, Saybrook.

Date 1834

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; pencil on paper

Description View of Lady Fenwick's Monument on Saybrook Point at the mountain at the mouth of the Connecticut River. The monument is in the foreground. In the right background, is a high dune or bluff, labeled by Barber "perhaps 30 or 40 rods distant from monument." At the left, beyond a "salt meadow" and a "cornfield" is a row of houses. Several ships are at anchor off the point.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 6 5/16 x 7 7/8in. (16 x 20cm)