

Basic Detail Report

Title South view of Governor Griswold's house in Lyme.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description Two-story house with additions at right and at rear. A fence is in the foreground. According to Barber's text, the house was located in Black Hall, and built by Roger Griswold and inhabited in 1836 by Matthew Griswold.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 1/8 x 4 3/4in. (8 x 12cm)