Basic Detail Report

Title Southern view of Watertown (central part)

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description A view of central Watertown. A man in a horse-drawn vehicle passes through town. A stone walkway lines the road in the lower left. Two churches are evident in town amongst a cluster of dwellings. Steele Brook runs through the center of town and is transversed by a bridge on the left side.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 15/16 x 5 7/8in. (10 x 15cm)