Basic Detail Report

Title Oyster Huts on Milford Point.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description A man in a top hat stands beside two small shanties, which are covered with seaweed. Smoke issues form the chimney on the left. The piles in the foreground are evidently oyster shells. The water in the background is probably the mouth of the Housatonic River.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 1/8 x 4 3/4in. (8 x 12cm)
