

Basic Detail Report

Title Shaker village, Enfield.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description A double row of building, including large communal dwelling houses. Buildings belonging to the Family in the center of the Shaker village are generally called the Church Family. A man and a boy with hoes and a man pushing a wheelbarrow, apparently in Shaker dress, are in the right foreground, by a row of trees and in front of a fence.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 1/8 x 4 3/4in. (8 x 12cm)