Title South view of the borough of Norwalk (variant)

Date 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Wood engraving; printer's ink on paper

Description View of Norwalk borough from across the Norwalk River. Two sailing vessels are at the left and a small skiff is in the center of the composition.

Houses and industrial buildings line the waterfront. On the far right is

and the Congregational and Episcopal Churches. Two men appear in the left foreground, the man seated sketching in probably a self-portrait.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 2 3/4 x 4 3/4 in. (7 x 12 cm)
