Basic Detail Report

Title Western view of Plainfield, Con.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description In the foreground on the left is a cemetery on a hill. Beyond the fields, evidently separated by stone walls, lies the village of Plainfield, a cluster of buildings on the side of the hill. The large church is the Congregational Church. Plainfield Aabout demy is the large church on top of the hill.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 9/16 x 5 1/8in. (9 x 13cm)