Basic Detail Report

INDIAN WORSHIP.

Led on by their priests, or Powaws, the Indians shouted and danced around a large fire, in a wild and fantastic manner, often sacrificing their choicest treasures, by throwing them into the fire. The Wepawaug or Milford Indians were the most noted for these practices.

Title Indian worship.

Date 1840-1860

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Basic Detail Report

Medium Wood engraving; printer's ink on paper

Description Native Americans dancing around fire. Text reads: "Led on by their priests, or Powaws, the Indians shouted and danced around a large fire, in a wild and fantastic manner, often sacrificing their choicest treasures, by throwing them into the fire. The Wepawaug or Milford Indians were the most noted for these practices."

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: 8 1/4 x 5 1/2in. (21 x 14cm)