Title Lower Manhattan Buildings at Night

Date probably 1990

Primary Maker Richard Welling

Medium Drawing; black ink on paper
