

Basic Detail Report

Title Hartford Public High School, Hartford

Date 1993

Primary Maker Richard Welling

Medium Photography; gelatin silver on paper Photocopies; black toner on paper

Serigraphy; black printer's ink on paper

Description Photocopies and a screen print after a drawing of Hartford Public High School, along with a copy of the photograph from which the drawing was made. The Gothic Revival building is depicted from an angle, with the front and right sides visible. It features two square towers flanking the front entrance, including one with a clock visible on two of its sides; arched and double-hung windows; and several gables and roofs.

Dimensions Sheet (height x width): 18 1/8 x 23 3/4in. (46 x 60.3cm) and smaller