

Basic Detail Report

Title G. M. Gilbert family, Durham or Redding.

Date 1880-1890

Primary Maker Northern Survey Company

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Gilbert family members in front of large two-story Georgian house with block foundation. Man wearing suspenders, tie and straw hat standing with two boys and two girls. One woman sits away from group in net hammock on left of house. Large two story addition on left has double door with Victorian brackets and louvered shutters. Main house has pediment roof with dentil molding over front door and a palladian window above. A palladian window is in gable on right over octagonal bay window. There is a gutter with downspouts and a rope or chain on the right front corner. Barn and farmhouse is on left.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 6 5/16 x 8 11/16in. (16 x 22cm)