Basic Detail Report

Title D. D. Clark family, probably New Hartford

Date 1880-1890

Primary Maker Northern Survey Company

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Two bearded men, two girls and a small dog in front of clapboard Cape style house with plank rail fence. Men wear overalls. House additions on the right include a one and half story gable end with chimney and a long one story with deep roof overhang covered in vines. Large, neatly stacked woodpile is front of vines. The front door has a trellis with vines.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 6 5/16 x 8 11/16in. (16 x 22cm)