Basic Detail Report

Title Bushnell Plaza Under Construction, Forms for 17th Floor Being Erected

Date 1968

Primary Maker Richard Welling

Medium Drawing; black and gray marker and white gouache on paper

Basic Detail Report

Description Reverse drawing of the construction of Bushnell Plaza in Hartford, Connecticut. In the foreground, two people walk under decorative metal gates, with automobiles beyond them. In the background in white is the Bushnell Tower structure being constructed. A crane at the very top carries a pallet of construction materials.

Dimensions Sheet (height x width): 22 3/4 x 17 7/8in. (57.8 x 45.4cm)