Basic Detail Report

Title New York Belting and Packing Company, Sandy Hook (Newtown)

Date about 1885

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper

Description Large group of employees, mostly men, pose on and around a large brick industrial building. Some men stand on ladders, some on exterior stairs, and some on the roof. Some sit on windowsills or lean out windows. Most wear hats and aprons. Some have beards or mustaches. Three women and a girl are on the roof. A square tower with round-arched windows and brackets beneath the roof is on the left. A wagon drawn by two horses is at its base. A board fence separates the dirt road in front of the factory from a field or meadow full of daisies or black-eyed Susans.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 10 1/4 x 13 3/4in. (26 x 35cm)