Basic Detail Report

Title Fred M. Hotchkiss wagon in front of a store, Meriden.

Date about 1900

Primary Maker Haley & Akers

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cabinet card mount

Description Three horses hitched in tandem to a wagon that is decorated as if for a parade. The driver wears a top hat. A second man wearing a cap holds the reins of the first horse. Signs on the wagon read: "Fred M. Hotchkiss 119-127 So. Col... / Meriden Carriage Rep[ository?]" "Wholesa[le]." Two additional men stand in the doorway of a two-story frame commercial building in the background. Advertising posters, including one for "Maggie Cline Cigars [?]," are displayed in the shop windows. A barn is at the right, behind a large tree.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 15/16 x 5 1/2in. (10 x 14cm)