Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Three-story frame hotel with porches and balconies on each story. A sign over the door reads: "The Heidleburg." A woman in an apron and cap, possibly a maid, stands by the door. Within the door stands a man [?] leaning on a chair, supported by another woman. Other people sit on the porch and in two horse-drawn carriages. A wing in the back is attached to an outbuilding, apparently a barn. The walk leading to the hotel is lined with young trees. A street lamp is in the foreground.
