Basic Detail Report

Title Uncle Reuben Bartlett's Store, Norwich

Date about 1900

Primary Maker F. J. Taylor & Co.

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description A man with a beard stands in the doorway of a shop in a brick commercial building. A sign above the awning reads: "P. Bartlett." A sign in the window reads: "Gent's / Furnishing / Goods." Displayed in the shop windows are suspenders, umbrellas and hats. A wooden crate is on the sidewalk at the right. Other signs read: "Miss M.E. Low / Millinery" and "Millinery Rooms." A street sign on the side of the building reads: "Union St." Inscribed on back: "Uncle Reuben Bartlett's store in / Norwich."

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 4 5/16 x 6 11/16in. (11 x 17cm)