

A black and white photograph of the storefront of the Bridgeport Upholstering Co. The building has a large sign above the entrance that reads "BRIDGEPORT UPHOLSTERING CO." and a smaller sign above the windows that reads "651 FURNITURE. 651". A man in a suit stands in the doorway. The windows display various furniture items, including a lamp and vases. A sign on the left window says "FURNITURE" and a sign on the right window says "CASH & CREDIT".

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Storefront in a commercial building with signs that read: "The Wentworth Furniture Co., Successors to / Bridgeport Upholstering Co." A sign o

the awning reads: "651 Furniture 651." Numbers over the door read: "1377."

Additional signs read: "Old / Stamps / and / coins" "We give / Trading / Stamps"

"Acorn / Stoves / and / Ranges" "Furniture" "Cash or Credit." Merchandise, including lamps and a small stove or heater, is displayed in the shop windows.

Window shades are at both windows. A man wearing a cap, vest, jacket and tie stands in the doorway. Part of a picket fence is at the left.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 15/16 x 5 7/8in. (10 x