Basic Detail Report

Title Burnside Avenue Cash Store, 16 Burnside Avenue, East Hartford

Date about 1900

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Three men and two women stand in front of a frame commercial building. The men have mustaches. Two wear aprons. A sign over the porch reads: "Burnside Avenue Cash Grocery." A sign over the front door reads: "Roberts." Other signs and advertisements read: "Get / Fels-Naptha / here" Bacon's..." "Drink / Phenix [sic] / for goodness sake..." "Brown's / charcoal" "Sunlight" "Hires / Root Beer" "Soap." Displays in the window include bags of flour and pineapples. Rakes are on the porch.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 4 5/16 x 6 11/16in. (11 x 17cm)